HYPOTHESIS

1. By studying the entire object we can consider that there is no any age limit for cruelty. It can start just after marriage or many years after marriage.

2. There is no any change in type or nature of cruelties made by husband or her in laws in any religion.

3. By taking divorce or separating judicially, woman can enjoy her fundamental rights.

4. There is no change in life style of woman but she can be harassed by abusing words by society.

5. The children can come under mental torture and they can become violent due to lack of love of father and mother who are separated.

6. As previously, women were suffering from cruelty and in present days they are also suffering from same problem. There is no change due to education, employment.